UGRA Supports Veterans through Food Drive

UGRA Assistant General Manager, Tammy Thompson, was inspired by the November 7, 2015 Kerrville Daily Times article urging support of area food banks. For Thompson, the need expressed by the Hill Country Veterans Center struck a chord. “My dad is a veteran and I think we all know at least one veteran, so this is a small way for us at UGRA to show our support of those in the community who have served our country,” said Thompson.

Donations will be accepted in the UGRA lobby at 125 Lehmann Drive for the Hill Country Veterans Center food bank now through the end of December. UGRA staff, customers, visitors, or anyone stopping by the Guadalupe Basin Natural Resources Center are encouraged to contribute. All donations of nonperishable food and toiletries are welcome. For a list of items most needed, please contact Alan Hill, director of the Hill Country Veterans Center, at (830) 315-3101.

Hill Country Veterans Center director Alan Hill received the first round of food bank donations from UGRA Assistant General Manager, Tammy Thompson. Donations for the food bank will be collected in the UGRA lobby through the end of December.
