UGRA Welcomes New Members

Kerrville, TX, May 25, 2011 – The Board of Directors of the Upper Guadalupe River Authority (UGRA) bid farewell to two retiring members and welcomed two new members to the UGRA Board of Directors on Wednesday, May 25, 2011. President Scott S. Parker presented retiring Directors Lana M. Edwards and Mike McKenzie with appreciation awards citing their visionary guidance and leadership for the past six years. “We are grateful for the work and foresight demonstrated by out-going Directors, Lana M. Edwards and Mike McKenzie. Though we will miss them, we are pleased to welcome the new members. Each of the new members brings valuable experience to the table and we look forward to working with them as stewards of the Upper Guadalupe River,” said Scott S. Parker, UGRA President.

Kerr County Judge Pat Tinley swore in new Directors, Harold Danford and Lonnie Pat Holloway who were appointed by Governor Perry to serve terms expiring February 1, 2017. They will join current UGRA Board members Scott S. Parker, Stan Kubenka, Mike Allen, Les Ferguson, Claudell Kercheville, Karol Schreiner, and Lucy Wilke.

Mr. Danford of Kerrville is a general practice attorney at Danford & Monroe Attorneys at Law. He was born in Big Spring, Texas and received his bachelor’s degree in business administration from Angelo State University and his law degree from St. Mary’s University School of Law. Mr. Danford is a former Assistant Kerr County attorney and was named outstanding young lawyer in Kerr County in 1995. He has been a member of the Kerr County Bar Association, State Bar of Texas, College of the State Bar of Texas, Pro Bono College of the State Bar of Texas, Texas Criminal Defense Lawyers Association, National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers, and the National College for DUI Defense, Inc.

Ms. Holloway of Kerrville is a real estate broker with Fore Premier Properties. She served as President of Republican Women of Kerr County from 2008 – 2009. She and her husband, Win, lived in the Houston area for 38 years before retiring to the Hill Country. Ms. Holloway majored in biology and math at Arkansas State University, Jonesboro.

The Upper Guadalupe River Authority is the respected, efficient, responsive, and forthright steward of the Upper Guadalupe River and its tributaries.
